

RIIOHS401A

Supervise Work in Confined Spaces

Scope

This course is designed for persons who are required to undertake supervision of personnel working in confined spaces on a mine site. The course targets the planning and risk assessment processes required for safe entry coupled with emergency response relevant to a mine site as a first response prior to the arrival of site dedicated emergency response teams or outside agencies.

Course Content

Day 1 References, legal and legislative requirements Definitions What is a confined space? Planning the confined space task Risk assessment procedures Entry permits Communication systems Roles and responsibilities Fire fighting drills relevant to site Day 2 Safety of the atmosphere Selection and operation of atmospheric monitoring devices	Ventilation systems and method of control Insertion and recovery equipment Day 3 Introduction to respiratory protection Physiology of respiratory protection When to wear protective equipment – TOES Types of respiratory protection Breathing apparatus safety Donning, starting, and wearing drills Basic maintenance	Day 4 Confined space emergency first response Select emergency rescue equipment Identify and liaise with external Emergency Services agencies Implement site approved emergency procedures First aid response including CPR Day 5 Conduct of entries into confined space Problem solving exercises involving insertion and recovery of attendees
--	---	--

Course Logistics

Venue:	PA Location or Onsite
Duration:	5 Days
Max No.:	10 Persons

Order Codes

Group:	72000124
Public:	72000125